Quarterly Progress Report - 1 September to 1 December 1953

ORALLSPICE 1

Sect. A. Operational Activity for period

1. Agent has carried out some minor operational assignments for SIB during the period, such as procuring several photographs which SIB planned to use in a FB operation.
2. Agent learned indirectly that he may become the victim of a blackmail attempt by the landlady of the pension where he formerly lived. The basis of the blackmail attempt was agent's relations with the landlady's sixteen year old granddaughter.
3. Agent has been studying the American Constitution and also a History of the U. S. in preparation for his emigration to the States.

Sect. B. Proposed Activity for the next quarter

1. Agent's study of America and American institutions will continue.
2. Continued efforts will be made to maintain an acceptable level for agent's security and morale.
3. It is hoped that agent will emigrate during the next quarter.

Sect. C. Problems encountered

1. The problem, of course, is to get agent and his family emigrated within the near future.
2. The second problem is to maintain agent's morale and security on a high level pending his departure.
